THE WORLD OF EDUCATION

by Deborah P. Smith

The recent appointment of Ivette Alphonso to the Newark Board of Education provoked an emotionally charged backlash from several Black women in the community. Ivette Alphonso, a Hispanic, was appointed on an interim basis until the April election. She filled the seat vacated by Gladys Francis, a black woman who served a short hiatus but resigned due to a residency conflict. The current makeup of the Newark Board is 3 black males, 1 white male, 1 white female, 1 Hispanic male and now 1 Hispanic female.

Although Alphonso was unanimously supported by the Board, opposing speakers pointed out that despite the fact Newark has a large population of black women raising single-parent families, there are no black women sitting on the Board of Education.

Central High School P.T.A. President Laura Baker, in a voice choked with anger, vehemently opposed the appointment and offered a slate of women she felt had the qualifications to serve the position.

Central Ward Councilman George Branch, advocated the appointment of a Central Ward resident obviously unaware Ivette Alphonso has a Central Ward address.

Soul-O-House Director Edna Thomas made an eloquent appeal on behalf of the appointment of a Black woman. Pointedly directing her words to Edgar Brown, Charles and Rev. Oliver Brown, the three Black men seated, Thomas quipped, "People forget the bridge that carried them. Males excluded Sojourner Truth who helped free many Black males." Paraphrasing Sojourner Truth, Thomas continued, "Didn't I carry you to freedom when nobody else would? How can you deny me by day and seek my bed at night? When you betray me, you betray yourself."

Despite the impassioned opposition, Fred Stetcher read the resolution which appointed Alphonso as interim Board member.

Senior Board member Charles Bell footnoted the meeting by saying although the appointment is on an interim basis, the appointment of Alphonso would have a positive influence and give the Board a chance to carry on pressing business.

Alphonso later responded, "I am a Central Ward resident and a woman of color. I hope my expertise will be helpful and I plan to keep working to improve the quality of education in Newark by helping make a cohesive Board."

Alphonso currently works at New York University of Continuing Education where she trains teachers.

NAMES IN THE NEWS.....

Junius Williams, Esq. was fired as chief of Essex-Newark Legal Services last Friday by the Legal Services board, Joyce Morgan casting the key negative vote...

A joke-feud runs between Dr. Ralph T. Grant and George Branch both of Newark City Council. The two trade jokes on each other at alternate affairs. Last Sunday at his breakfast Branch recalled a machine in Penn Station that he said Grant dropped a coin in and had his future told. Another traveler did the same and also an Indian commuter. Branch said Grant became puzzled at the machine's amazing qualities and put in another coin to ask, but was simply told, "You missed your train". Everybody laughed, but the exact point of the joke was hidden somewhere or the reported missed an angle.

Rev. Arthur S. Jones had a meeting Tuesday night in Clinton Memorial AME Zion Church on Ethiopian hunger with the Ethiopian ambassador scheduled to be present. Meanwhile he is pushing his new county political organization that rivals the Essex County Democratic Committee, though he denies this. Two of his aides are interesting career girls, Toni Adams and Emjay Peterson, both of Montclair.

Red Foxx was to appear in Newark but this week's Newsweek mag says he is due in Sahara Club in Las Vegas this month. The Newsweek story details his career — $35,000 for each episode of Sanford and Son, ownership of five houses, a TV production company, a theatrical management agency, a Los Angeles nightclub and Hollywood beauty shop. "So its back to the casinos and clubs," the article says. "Things were falling apart. Most of Foxx's business enterprises are gone, so are three of his five homes, and the IRS has a lien on the Las Vegas one. He owes $600,000 in alimony. Of NBC and ABC with whome he fell out he calls them a "bunch of crooks."

Cover girl Valerie Smith, formerly of Plainfield, now lives in Edison. She attended Rev. Grant's fall affair with Ralph Grant, III. Joyce Moore is an exec at ECC. She appeared alone at George Branch's breakfast, dressed in white.

Terris Smith was one of several honorees at Barbara Delaney's Salute at L'Affair last Sunday. The same day the Sisters-Two, Irene Reeves and sister staged their Fashion Extravaganza at Biases. What happened to H.P. Connor, the eligible industrial engineer now of Roseland? He formerly attended all the swank affairs. Gloria Lee of Englewood, former publisher of Switch newspaper has moved back to New York. She made a sweep of affairs here during last spring and last winter. Her daughter will be placed in a private New York school. Her husband died over a year ago.

THE FUTURE?

The future belongs to those who prepare for it — Blacks of every age should seriously take a look at themselves. If you are 18 years or older you should be a registered voter — our destiny is tied to education and the exercise of our voting privileges. Millions of Blacks in Africa and South America, are fighting and dying for these same rights that we have taken for granted and often refuse to exercise.

Every vote will count, the belief that your not somebody is disgusting and stupid. The census and voting registration are going to be our most important function during the eighties. How much welfare or senior citizens relief are due us hangs right in the balance of how many of us are counted in the census and registered to vote. Dollars will be less from the State and Federal Government if you sleep — remember no one can hurt you nor can they abuse you because of the census or registering to vote.

Civil Rights is slipping away from the Black people because in the last ten years we have begun to believe in a dream — that we had it made . . . the only thing in America that makes you equal to anyone else is your citizenship and the right to vote, to make a choice if you like or don't like.

Vote for your choice, if you like a person and feel she or he should be your elected representative, then vote for them and try to help them for God sakes — don't try to destroy them with rumors.

If your elected official is not doing what you think, talk to them behind closed doors and fine out why they are not doing the things you think they should be doing. Remember this, but don't be mouthing off unless you are the registered voter or have taken part in the census drive.

THE SOCIALITES. . .

By Butler Webb

ALPHAS SHORE FORMAL — Society, mainly from the Jersey shore area flocked to the annual Charity Ball by the Asbury Park Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity at Gibbs Hall in Tinton Falls, NJ, October 27.

The ball was so elegant that the expensive gold and black covered souvenir program divided the evening into time periods with emcee C.B. Cargile of Lakewood announcing cocktails at 7 p.m., dining and dancing at 8, honors ceremony at 9:30, dancing again at 10:15, door prizes and raffle at 11:30 and adjournment at midnight.

In charge of each time capsule were Brothers Anthony Hodges, chapter president Edward Patton, Woodrow G. Holmes, John W. Dorsey, and Tyrone Virgil. Although Patton, Holmes and Dorsey were also honorees.

State president of Alphas Elbert D. Wisner of Ocean, NJ and member of the Dr. James W. Parker, Sr. scholarship awards group presented Alvin Fridie, Rhoda McKnight and Kesney Part the 1984 scholarships at the Wisner home before the ball. Other members of the committee are Dr. J.A. Parker and John Dorsey. Wisner was also entertainment chairman of the ball.

The elegant program led off with names and fotos of The Seven Jewels, brothers who founded the frat at Cornell University in Ithaca, NY, in 1906. All have died, but frat members celebrate their memory. The seven were Eugene Kinkle Jones, Dr. Henry A. Callis, Charles H. Chapman, George B. Kelley, Nathaniel A. Murray, Robert H. Ogle and the architect Vertner W. Tandy. Frat pins of members actually are adorned with seven jewels.

Chapter president Edwin O. Patton said it had contributed $50,000 in scholarships during its existence. In scholarships and donations to charity groups, cash outlay from last year's charity all totalled $5,200.

Woodrow C. Holmes was chairman of the ball. The Alphabettes, ladies of the ball, were credited for their aid by him.

Brothers of Zeta Epsilon Lambda Chapter are as follows:

DISCOVERY OF AMERICA IN 1492.

History doesn't tell us much about Pedro Alonzo Nino, the black navigator who played an important part in the discovery of the New World.

But then, history doesn't tell us much about many achievements by blacks.

The staff of After Hour News are out to do something about that. We're putting together one of the most extensive collections of memorabilia and reference material on black history you'll be able to find anywhere.
